"That there is the Famous Albanian School of Medicine!"

Pope Hugh Hefner I Visits Albania!

Albania (WHN) Pope Hugh Hefner I and President Billy Clinton of the United States blessed Albania with a whirlwind visit. Pope Hefner I was reported to be quite impressed with the piety of the local natives.

When asked by the WHN how the Church has changed since his ascendancy to the Chair of St. Peter, Pope Hefner I stated that the relocation of the Vatican to Las Vegas was among his greatest accomplishments to date. Pope Hefner stated that, "It's hot as Hades there.....I LOVE It! I got wine, snack food and best of all I've got a great bunch of nuns in the Papal Chorus Line." Following an inspiring speech by Pope Hefner I, Bishopess Madonna, who is on Tour with the Pope, entertained the crowd with her newest hit song "Just Like a Nun".

President Clinton, who has taken time out of his busy schedule of raising taxes to accompany the Pope to Albania, was reported to have also met with the head of the Vatican Bank, Monsignor Jackie Presser. Monsignor Presser, best known for the unionization of priests and nuns, is reported to be arranging Vatican backed loans to cover the ever expanding Federal deficit. The Vatican Bank is said to be "rolling in the dough" following it's establishment of the Las Vegas Penance Cathedral (Official motto: All mortal sins are forgiven with a role of the dice!). Pilgrims are reported to be flocking to Las Vegas for prayer in the Penance Cathedral (formerly Circus Circus).

Respected Editor Under Investigation For Mail Fraud

IRS, Postal Service Illegally Hounding Respected Editor!

Grand Cayman Islands (WHN) Agents of the IRS and the U.S. Postal Service today announced the seizure of $1.2 billion dollars from the First Federal Bank of the Cayman Islands account of WHN Editor Mark Scott. Mr. Scott states that the IRS and Postal Authorities have been hounding him for years and that the seized monies simply represents his annual Christmas Club Account.

Federal Authorities pooh-pah Mr.

Scott's explanation. Postal Agents (Ed, falsely) claim that the money represents an illegal scam in which readers of the WHN are asked to send large sums of money directly to Mr. Scott's personal Cayman Island accounts.

Editor Scott, contacted at the Plastic Surgery Out-Patient Clinic of the Albanian Medical School, stated this is an blatant lie and, if unlucky, he'll have to see them in court....

Federal authorities are reported to be seeking Mr. Scott who they now suspect to have red hair, blue eyes, glasses, beard, new nose, smaller ears, and Bermuda shorts. Authorities caution that Mr. Scott may be, in reality, the one armed man suspected in the death of Dr. Richard Kimble's wife.

Movie Review

All Dogs Go To Heaven, Part 2

Two Paws Up!

by Las E. Bowser

Albania (WHN) The Albanian World Premiere of the BIG budget film, All Dogs Go To Heaven, Part 2, was stated to be a "huge success" by producer and film mongrel R.T. Tin.

The film represents the cinematic comeback vehicle for the aging ex-puppy actor Droopy. Mr. Droopy's portrait of Max, the Night Watch Dog was nothing less than riveting. While several scenes were outstanding, this reviewer's favorite was a classic fire hydrant scene. In this scene, a despondent, jobless, Max finally finds happiness as the Night Watch Dog at a fire hydrant factory. The subtle emotions exuded by Mr. Droopy as he accepts the job of Night Watch Dog are beyond the skills of most canine actors and harken back to the promise Mr. Droopy exhibited as an aspiring puppy actor.

However, the crowd pleaser was the dramatic chase scene in which Max pursues the car of bad guys. A number of fans went rabid during this extraordinary scene and there was not a dry nose in the crowd, for, as stated in the title, it is true that All Dogs Go To Heaven.

This film has it all, pathos, humor, action, four great legs, and lots of fire hydrants. See it now!

Hazardous Waste Delays Onset of Hazardous Research

AMC Scientist Looks For Job With US Postal Service

Albania (WHN) In a move detrimental to the health of Postal Employees everywhere, construction of the new Experimental Pathology research laboratory of Dr. Mark Scott has been delayed. The postponement was necessitated by the discovery of vast petroleum deposits, acid rain, and evidence of a secret rocket laboratory.

Kuwaiti officials have claimed all petroleum deposits (e.g., hexane) as the sovereign property of the Emirate. Iraqi officials have disputed this claim and are reported to be mobilizing troops along the MS-227 demarcation line.

Meanwhile, Canadian Officials are investigating whether MS-226 has been the source of acid rain which has denuded Canadian forests over the last 20 years. Evidence to this effect has been found in the acid pools which have been reliably dated to September of 1974.

Further compounding an already complicated situation is evidence, in the form of hydrazine hydrate (a solid rocket fuel component), that MS-226 may have served as a secret rocket fuel laboratory. Neither AMC or CIA officials will comment on the theory, originally put forth by former President George Bush, that Iraqi weapons research was conducted at the MS-226 site. Similarly, Air Force officials refused comment on rumors indicating that a surgical air strike is being planned to eliminate any remnants of the rocket laboratory.

However, the most disturbing consequence of the MS-226 crisis is that Dr. Scott has applied for a position with the United States Postal Service. Dr. Sigmoid Froid of the Albanian School of Insane Studies states that, "This is an ominous sign and the coworkers of Dr. Scott should immediately flee in fear!"

Interview With The Star of 'All Dogs Go To Heaven, Part 2'

WHN: Mr. Droopy what made you want the part of Max, The Night Watch Dog?

Droopy: Well, since my abbreviated appearance in the movie classic "Roger Rabbit" my interest in thespian pursuits has been revived. I did a couple of commercials (Gravy Train, ALPO) that caught the attention of Rin (Mr. Tin, Executive Producer of ADGTH, Part 2) and was asked to read for the part of Max.

WHN: Are the rumors of your off-screen romance with leading lady FiFi La Poodle true?

Droopy: We're just friends and the rumors of us sniffing each others bun's are just not true.

WHN: But isn't it true Mr. Droopy, that the National Esquire has pictures of you and Ms. Poodle howling it up in some Hollywood back alley?

Droopy: o.k., o.k., enough--I've had it with you guys hounding me.....
