Wizened Old Man Discovered Teaching At AMC

Dr. Mahoney Shown Using His Head!

PROFESSOR MAHONEY REPORTED TO BE, WELL, OVER 39!

Albania (WHN) The Albanian Medical Center announced today that Dr. John Mahoney has been promoted to the tenured (atually fortyured) position of WOM (Wizened Old Man). This promotion was bestowed upon Dr. Mahoney in recognition of his long service to humanity. President Bill Clinton, in awarding the WOM Degree to Dr. Mahoney, stated that, "while a bit long in the tooth, I hope that John will survive another 3 years so he can vote for me again!" Hillary Clinton agreed with Bill and added, "This country needs more old farts like him!"

Dr. Mahoney has had an "interesting" career. Following a distinguished career in the military (see photo, right top), Colonel Mahoney entered the music business and appeared on stage as Elvis Parsley (see photo bottom right). When Elvis failed to catch on with the Hip-Hop crowd, John tried a career as a "Bouncer" (see photo, left). John found this to be an emotionally rewarding profession, but unfortunately it paid very little (other than 3 children). The necessity of cash forced John to consider (gasp!) a paying job. Then inspiration struck, one day while donating blood at the local plasma center, the future Dr. Mahoney decided "Science is the place to be, lab living is the life for me". Thus began the distinguished scientific career of Dr. John R. Mahoney. Following his successful completion of a Ph.D. degree (o.k., o.k., so he's not a real doctor), Dr. Mahoney was ready for the world (but was the world ready for Dr. Mahoney). Publication followed publication and in 1993 (suspiciously during an investigation by the FBI and FDA) Dr. Mahoney was convinced to leave Minnie-soda for Albania by Dr. John W. Eaton. It was only after his recruitment that AMC discovered he was near retirement age and awarded him with the WOM degree.

THE TOP TEN REASONS TO BE MARRIED TO JOHN MAHONEY

By Jo Mahoney

- 10) The hair from his back dissolves quickly in Drano.
- 9) He's not Joey Buttafuoco.
- 8) He sneezes with panache.
- 7) He has very few syndomes to speak of.
- 6) His feet are those of a model.
- 5) He can spot a person with wall-eyes a mile away.
- 4) He has healthy gums.
- 3) He almost always remembers to flush.
- 2) Now that the pulsating scab has healed, he's pleasant to kiss.
and the top reason to be married to JRM is:
- 1) He's not Dean Brown.

Editors Note: Mrs. Mahoney currently resides at Bellview Sanitarium (Where you have a great view of Taco Bell; call now and reserve your window!). They have been married for 19 years (such patience she has) and they have 3 children, a dog, a chinchilla, and lots of very tasteless and tacky friends.

Frivolous Libel Suit Filed Against World Headline News

The editor of the World Headline News, Mr. Mark Scott, has had a $10,000,000 libel suit filed against him. The plaintiff in the court action, Dr. John Mahoney, has claimed that, "irreparable harm has been done to both my professional reputation and public image".

Lawyers for the News, a highly respected tabloid, state that no libel has occurred because, "Doctor Mahoney, who by the way is not a real Doctor, has no professional reputation and to even suggest that he has a public image is ludicrous. We stand by our story he is head of the Mulrooney crime family!". Editor Scott assures the loyal and intelligent readers of the World Headline News that, with the exception of those incidents resulting in extended stays in the Tiajuana, Las Vegas, and Albanian prison systems, his reputation as a honest journalist is kind of spotless.

Attempts to settle out of court have not yet been successful. Editor Scott has stated, "If they think they can scare me off..., hey, where is the airport in this podunk town anyway?" A court date has not yet been set.

The Secret Life of Dr. Mahoney Wanted by Highway Patrol In 12 States! by John Mahoney (The Innocent Son?)

The reputable Dr. John Mahoney from AMC has been discovered to be leading a separate and secret life - as a maniacal driving instructor. He reportedly directs unfortunate youths along tortuous trails and old roads for his own twisted pleasure. He even went so far as to force his own son on a suicide trip. After profuse protestation by the son to the chosen "instructional course", the son was finally convinced it was "safe". The trusting son blundered blindly into the less famed "Arctic" tarpits (the polar cousin of the LaBrea tarpits). Struggling to stay alive in the frigid austere region of the pits, help was luckily summoned by a local penguin rancher.

The Day My Dad Went To The Dogs The (non-Michael) Jackson Story

by Miss Molly Mahoney

One day after supper dad came downstairs with mom and said, "I know all of you want a dog so here are some things you will have to do ..." and started talking about feeding the dog, taking the dog for walks and all kinds of responsibilities. So I said, "Is it happening dad?!?" "Well, that's all up to...(I thought he was going to say " It is all up to me.")" whoever is going to take care of the dog." said dad. The next day dad found an ad in the paper for a blacklab all the way in Shockepee. So dad told us and we went over there to look. They were aflyie cute! I went out of the room for a minute to talk to mom . I said, "Mom you know that um, black dog with the um, cute little face, please can we ?" " I know you like the males but we have to get a girl." said mom explaining why we had to get a girl. So before I knew it the dog was payed for and in the car! When we got home we named the dog Jackson.

Mummified Mahoney Brain Reported to be in Excellent Condition!

For a Rock

Albania (WHN) Scientist from the Hold-The Mayo Clinic today issued their report on the mummified Mahoney brain. Dr. Mark Scott, Aging Director, states that, "...the Mahoney brain, as shown in this x-ray, is surprisingly uncluttered with unnecessary (or necessary) knowledge considering its age [estimated to be exactly 40 years of age as of this publication date]. Indeed, by my esteemed estimation, it approximates a vast wasteland. The obvious intellectual dryness of the brain most assuredly favored its mummification."

Dr. Sigmoid Freud, Abnormal Psychologist at the Hold-The-Mayo Clinic concurs with Dr. Scott and added that while this cranial mummification would be detected in most individuals, the extremely advanced age, as well as the expected senile dementia noted in persons of his age, served to obscure the dessication of Dr. Mahoney's brain. Mrs. Jo Mahoney is quoted as saying, "John's always been steady as a rock and now I know why!"

Mahoney Indicted

Charged With Psychological Mayhem!

Albania (WHN) It was learned today that Mr. Karl Goerz, father of Jo Mahoney, has filed felony psychological mayhem charges against Dr. John Mahoney. Mr. Goerz is quoted as saying, "I was a normal man until my lovely daughter married that..that...that near-derthal John Mahoney. Since then, things have changed. My other daughter has grown a beard (see related story "Bearded Lady") to avoid public recognition and I've had to move south of the border."

SCANDAL!

JOHN MAHONEY'S FIRST WIFE BECOMES BEARDED LADY IN CARNIVAL SIDESHOW

Ashamed of Self - Hides From Curious Public

Albania (WHN) WHN Investigative Reporter Ned Ander-Thal has uncovered the startling fact that Dr. John Mahoney has ruined the life of not just Jo Mahoney but of Jo's sister Lee. Indeed, rumors persist that Lee Peterson may have actually been Dr. Mahoney's secret first wife. While these charges have not been verified (due only to a very suspicious fire in the "Mah-Mai" folder at the Hennipin County Clerks Office), several events lend credence to this claim.

Of primary importance is the finding that Lee Peterson has suffered through months, perhaps years, of

Fearless Dr. Mahoney And Assistant To Solve The Mystery of the Lake Nokomis Monster

The Cold Waters of Lake Nokomis in Minnie-Soda (WHN) Brave bathtub explorer (see WHN Contest, Page 2) Dr. John Ries Mahoney III today announced that he and his faithful companion Ryan "The Duck" Peterson would solve the mystery of the Lake Nokomis Monster.

Dr. Mahoney, well known in the Land o'Lakes for his previous adventures at the Sri Lanka Curry House and his search for the great white whale at Moby Dicks, has reportedly lined up "Mrs. Pauls Fishsticks" as the corporate sponsor. Informed sources state that the expected cost of this Fantastic Voyage will exceed $0.93 (reported to be the life savings of Dr. Mahoney).

Dr. Mahoney's selection of Ryan "The Duck" Peterson to accompany him has added to the confidence of Dr. Mahoney's scientific advisors. "The Duck" has been reported to actually know how to swim...something John "The Rock" Mahoney is still attempting to master. However, in case of a mishap, both adventurers have been tattooed to aid in their identification (police mug shots have also been taken of these very suspicious characters!). The WHN will keep its readers informed as to the progress of these fearless explorers into the unknown!

The Wizend Old Man Problem at AMC

INTERVIEW WITH DR. ANTHONY (BIG TONY) TARTAGLIA

Q: How could you hire anyone as old as Professor Mahoney? Did you interview him?

A: Yeah, but he looked younger. You know, a lot more hair, lipstick and pancake makeup. Couldn't tell the sex for sure and, you know, you can't ask these days. Then I see him a couple of days ago and christ, what a change. Like, you know, reverse plastic surgery.

Q: What do you plan to do about all these old faculty like Mahoney?

A: Well, I don't know. First, I thought I'd buy out their contracts with The Endowment. But my secretary couldn't find it. We think it's a filing problem. Then, I figure why not talk to Guido ("The Roller") Squashini - you know the guy who did Hoffa. But then, I thought, you know, I might get caught. Besides, there's not enough roads being built in New York. Then, all of a sudden, it came to me. I got these old guys convinced we're going to move the school across the river. So, we just pack 'em up, put 'em on the van and move 'em out. By the time they figure it out it'll be too late. Is that slick or what?

My Dad's A Cry-Baby! claims Son of "Not a Real Doctor" Mahoney

In an exclusive WHN interview, Max Mahoney dishes the dirt!

My dad has always been jealous because I was such an expert at ping pong. So after begging and begging, I told him I would voluntarily teach him how to play the game. It was a long hard process but I managed to teach him the basics first, and told him there is no substitute for speed and there is no substitute for consistency. After he learned how to actually get the ball over the net I asked him if he wanted to play a game. In no time at all I was up 20 to 1. I could start to see him cry and mumble, "I'm no good at this, I'm no good at this." So I had to let him win. It was hard knowing I could smash it down his throat at any minute while letting him get 20 points in a row. Finally after I (purposely) flubbed and whiffed those 20 points, I hit the ball into the net so he could win this one game to make him feel better!!

Elvis Comes Back From Dead To Sing, "Don't Be Cruel...you old fart"

Albania (WHN) As part of the "40th National Celebration of the Birth of Mahoney", Elvis Parsley returned from the dead (or Albany which is about the same thing) to sing his new song, "Don't Be Cruel...you old fart". The song has already soared to number 1 on the Rock, Country, Soul, Gospel and Classical charts.

Colonel Mahoney, Mr. Parsley's manager, stated that this was the best possible way for Elvis to start his comeback tour.

P.S. I still have to tell him to call the score before he serves.
